Moritz Behm (pronounced “Bame”) is one of the highlights this Saturday, June 12, 2004 at the 1st Annual Pemberton Folk Festival, to be held in Pemberton, BC this weekend. Behm will be on the main stage at 8pm, playing his unique brand of neo-classical and contemporary violin music, fused with Celtic, jazz and rock influences. Expect to hear some of his brilliant original compositions from his new CD, “Beauty” including the haunting “Middle Eastern Passion” and “Mother’s Arms.” For song samples and copies of his CD, check out his web site at www.moritzbehm.com or call 604-894-5904 for more information.
